IYASHI DÔME DETOX *

Of Japanese origin, Iyashi Dôme is a modern technology that combines three important concepts - purification, weight loss and cellular regeneration - and obtains unique results in terms of beauty and well-being. Its action is exerted through long infrared (IRL), like the heat emitted by the sun and that used in the incubators of maternity. The main function is the purification of the body through the elimination of toxins. Regenerating, purifying and losing weight are the three main goals of this detox program.
